ABSTRACT

Playzone is the One-Stop Sports platform to help bring back Play in everyday lives. We empower local communities to make new playpals, organize playgroups, share information or experiences and discover sporting venues/activities.

Playzone is a platform built for sports enthusiasts, where players from around the city host, join and manage sport events. Every player is rated by other players after every game, the ratings are averaged and final scores are shown in the player's profile. This allow the users to host sports event for specific player levels. This report focuses on a new portable game system that will read and play. The main purpose of this particular project is to develop a low-cost application that will allow individuals to watch and/or interact with all types of game Enthusiasts. As a result of the project, individuals will be able to use the system to host games and play with other individuals using the project, driving the market to new competitive highs.
